

Saint Ben’s and Saint John’s will be home to a new chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. No . . . this doesn’t equate to an onslaught of sorority and fraternity houses. Phi Beta Kappa is the nation’s oldest academic honor society, founded in 1776.

Only about 10 percent of the nation’s institutions of higher learning have Phi Beta Kappa chapters. CSB/SJU expect to induct the first student members spring semester 2010. These students will be among more than 500,000 members of Phi Beta Kappa, including 17 U.S. presidents, seven current U.S. Supreme Court Justices, more than 130 Nobel Prize laureates, Indianapolis Colts’ quarterback Peyton Manning and others.
